

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-910

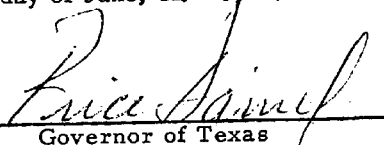

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

I am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State Senate Bill Number 300 of the Regular Session, Fifty-seventh Legislature, providing for certain information to be furnished by the Texas Employment Commission from its records. However, since the bill was passed, the Commission has received notice from the Bureau of Employment Security of the U. S. Department of Labor that disclosure of this information is prohibited by Federal law and policy. Because of the working relationship between the Texas Employment Commission and the Bureau of Employment Security, this bill would create a serious conflict between State and Federal law.

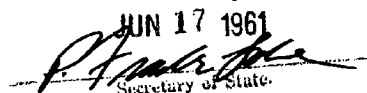

Senate Bill Number 300 was received in the Governor's Office less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, and in accordance with the Constitution, the bill, together with this Proclamation, is being filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 17th day of June, A. D. 1961.

Governor of Texas
